

Pakistan Journal of EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

(Bi-Annual Research Journal)

Society for Social Sciences and Research Association

Editorial

Important feature of the research is to spread its results so that individuals and society can take benefit from it and able to solve their problems. In this regard, this is the third issue of PJER.

This Issue is also important because, in this volume the research papers of the participants of the first World Video Conference on Social Sciences (IVCSS-2018), organized by the Society for Social Sciences and Research Association – SSSARA, are also presented.

The theme of this conference was ‘Globalization and its Impacts on Society’. Apart from Pakistan, researchers from six countries presented their research papers and articles of these researchers are being published in all three research journals of SSSARA.

I hope that through the SSSARA's research Journals, we can play a positive role in promoting the research culture, specially in Pakistan.

I congratulate my entire team on organizing this international conference and the third issue of PJER.
